DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Maguire in view of Pfister.

Maguire discloses a hand held gardening implement having a frame which comprises the rake handle 18 and center portion 10a of the holder, a rake head (having working elements (tines) capable of piercing the ground at the proximal end of the frame, a brace 10c (figure 3) attached to the center portion 10a of the frame at the distal end, a handle 11 intermediate the working element and projecting away from the frame 18, 10a in the opposite direction as the working element, and the brace 10c is formed of a circular metallic rod stock.

However, a cushion for contacting the forearm on the brace is not specifically disclosed.

Pfister discloses a cushion 20 to the degree as claimed on a brace portion of a hand tool. It would have been an obvious choice in design to provide a cushion as seen in Pfister to the brace Maguire to provide a comfortable rest for the forearm. To provide such a cushion to offer comfort and ease of operation, especially when the tool is being used for an extended period of time or handling a burdensome load would be considered obvious.

Art Unit: 3671

Re claim 16, metal tine rakes with a substantially rectangular head (not the fanned-types used in raking leaves) can be used for digging. Hoes can also be used with the implement holder (col. 3, lines 24-32).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments are deemed moot in view of the present rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
